

INDUSTRY PRESS RELEASES /

Sukraat Coaching launched in the MENA region

Press Release Content

Sukraat Coaching is an excellence coaching program designed for MENA / GCC business executives and entrepreneurs offering customized solutions.

The Program is a live, interactive, challenge-driven not content driven coaching unlike other coaching programs offered in these regions where the main focus is on sales solely, and this is an immense business leverage which differentiates Sukraat Coaching from any other coaching program in the MENA/ GCC regions.

Commenting on Sukraat new launch in the MENA/ GCC regions, Allan Austin, Founder of Sukraat coaching says, 'We are happy that Sukraat Coaching is being launched in the MENA / GCC regions so we can continue to help our clients in these vital regions.'

In a time full of uncertainties, many companies are overwhelmed, burned-out and on the cusp of depression. According to published data, many companies in the MENA region are starting to recognize the importance of coaching programs in restructuring their operations and maintaining profits.

Going to www.sukraatcoaching.com you can see examples of successful athletes and business people using coaches along with quotes and letters from satisfied clients. Now the motto of the corporate world is to get the best from its employees, to make their employee more productive and accomplished, executive coaching programs have also been launched in many corporate organizations to assist both executives and their staffs. In this context, Sukraat Coaching is offering both practical solutions and mentoring advice to gain the maximum benefit of emerging products and business practices in these regions.

Allan explains, "Sukraat not only offers workable solutions for immediate challenges but also we are assisting our clients in successfully repositioning their operations and ensuring our client's investments return a payoff. Sukraat Coaching is designed by people from the GCC/MENA regions for executives and leaders in these regions. The Program has a vigorous expertise in the MENA /GCC business and market culture."

Sukraat coaching offers in addition to live, online coaching access to a set of global information sources and connections but also assisting with the process of effectively managing the current recession while yielding long-term returns. Sukraat coaching is fully aware of the current challenges ranging from business development and team performance to personal challenges such as raising energy levels and motivation drive of the client. In this regard, Sukraat Coaching understands that the issues of raising the motivation levels to enjoy fulfillment and happiness in their personal lives.

Sukraat coaches have worked with several high profile companies world-wide such as Emerson, Arabi Group, Siemens, Hasibat, Designer Brands, and others. Many clients expressed their gratitude after implementing Sukraat Coaching, a plastics company owner stated, "Allan saved my businesses." while another owner said, "This is exactly what I've been looking to make money from my businesses." Furthermore, Sukraat Coaching offers flexible remote support tools with their clients 24/7 and this offering is what makes Sukraat Coaching stands out in the competition.

Realizing the importance of maintaining superior standards for confidentiality and integrity, Sukraat Coaching smooth these concerns whilst handling sensitive data for its clients.

Henry Liebling, Partner of Sukraat coaching says' Sukraat Coaching brings order out of chaos, our longevity and proactive have earned our team its reputation as Coaching expertise."

You can learn more about this press release by visiting www.sukraatcoaching.com

Contact Details

Name

Sherin Deghedy

Telephone

+971 50 4121081

Email

sdegghedy@hotmail.com

http://www.arabianbusiness.com/press_releases/detail/39524